

BlueCross BlueShield of Oklahoma

Additional medical records for predetermination

Physicians and professional providers who have received an approved predetermination (which establishes medical necessity of a service) do not need to submit additional medical records to Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Oklahoma. In the event that additional medical records are needed to process a claim on file, a request will be made at that time.